DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

From the New York Herald.

NIGGER SUFFRAGE—SPLIT IN THE RADICAL PARTY.

There is a good sign in Congress. Radical Republicans broadly and definitely differ on "the main question." Hitherto the Radicals have had their differences and disputes, but always on issues in which there was no peculiar party necessity for agreement—issues that did not involve the very vitality and cohesion of the party. Different members of this dominant faction hold the most opposite views on the tariff question, and sagacious leaders have seen and acted on the necessity of keeping that topic down for the present, conscious that its agitation would make an incurable breach.—Not less positive is the difference on the money question. Some Radicals go cheek by jowl with Pendleton and some would be under the foot of the gold exacting bondholder. But these were differences that could be soothed by cajolery for the time being, and that were lost in agreement on the common party purpose—the topic that seemed to the faction greater than all others together—the central idea of nigger suffrage. Nigger suffrage was the pole star of the party—the one immovable, positive fact toward which every act pointed, and which was kept in view by every little bill, however apparently insignificant, that steered its way through the labyrinth of Congressional schemes. Radicalism ciphered down to its final figure was nigger suffrage and nothing else. Nigger suffrage was what all the Radical orators from Sumner to Stevens meant in all their bullying and blather about "equality for the whole people," "a republican form of government," "a Southern guarantee." These were the names they gave it—the sort of sugar coating to make it less offensive to the people. Now the Radicals differ absolutely and irremediably as to the safety and expediency of this measure. In this difference there is a hope, a prospect, a promise for the country, just as there always is to honest men when rogues of any sort fall out.

It is scarcely possible to over estimate the importance of this radical rupture. It is the peculiarly significant fact of the day in our political turmoils. On the measure forcing nigger suffrage one Republican said: "I should regard the passage of this bill at this hour as the death-knell of our hopes as a political party in the Presidential canvass." From this, then, it seems that the voice of the people has more influence over the minds of some republicans than the whistle call of party discipline. The magnetism has departed from old Thad Stevens' finger. Up to this time Radical orthodoxy has turned on the point of a man's devotion to this primary purpose. It was the test of soundness always called forth whenever a member seemed to waver or venture any opinions of his own. His claim to the spoils of victory was always dependent on his fidelity in this extreme. Without personal independence of spirit, governed by the fear of being "read out of the party" before the roll should be called for the distribution of the spoils, perceiving no other danger than that which would result from failure in party duty, the members who composed the republican majority were easily enough kept together by so positive and inexorable a Mentor as Old Stevens, who drove them up to every vote in a compact mass, as the captains of Xerxes, whip in hand, drove forward the Persian soldiers at Thermopylæ. But that terrorism has lost its hold on their spirits. The fear of Stevens and of the consequences of infidelity to the party is forgotten in a greater fear; and the men who on only a sense of danger kept together scatter and skedaddle when they suddenly perceive that a greater danger than all others lies in being caught in the company of the great offender against the sense of the nation. So the radical party breaks up on the main issue—divides on the essential fact that gave the party life; and a member from Ohio, regarding the vote of his State on the topic, "will suffer his right arm to drop from its socket sooner than he will vote" for a bill securing a thing that he lately pretended to believe the most righteous on earth.

Disintegration will follow fast. Nothing can prevent the faction from going to pieces, now that the single thread of agreement which gave it unity is broken.

DESPERATE DUEL.

A desperate duel took place about 5 o'clock on Friday afternoon between two gentlemen, one Mr. N., of French origin, connected with the financial department of one of our theatres, and the other, Mr. B., a Creole, of this city. The challenging party was the theatre gentleman, and Mr. B. selected the French navy broad-sword as the weapon, which were sharpened to a very keen edge. The combat took place back of the Orleans ball-room, in the new hall, erected on a portion of the site formerly occupied by the burnt up Orleans theatre.

The parties were seconded by experts like themselves in the art of self-defence, and it is probably owing to this fact that the duel did not end fatally. The combat lasted a few minutes, and concluded by Mr. B. cutting Mr. N. deeply but not dangerously, directly over the right temple,—Mr. B., at the same time, receiving a serious wound in the left wrist in his successful endeavor to ward off a deadly blow of his adversary, aimed at his abdomen. The combat was then arrested, and the wounded parties received the attention of their physicians.

Mr. B's. wound is said to be of a severe character, and it is feared that the main artery of his injured arm has been severed. The floor upon which the desperate duel took place was literally covered with blood, which flowed in great profusion from the wounds of both combatants. The cause of the duel was of a personal character, and for a wonder no lady was connected with the affair.—New Orleans Picayune, March 15th.

FETISCHISM.—The barbaric dance in which the Radical, white and black, members of the North Carolina Convention indulged in the other day, is but an illustration of the new order of things we are to have in the South, when its Africanization shall have been completed. We will have all of those savage rites, ceremonies, dances, revelries and sacrifices that prevail among the barbarous African tribes. Fetischism will not only be practiced, but made a part of the legal system. Such is the progress of civilization, such the evidence to which we point as demonstrating that ours is "the best government the world ever saw."—The bones and banjo will soon displace the stars and the stripes.—Richmond Whig.

The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to enable honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain forms prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U. S. Commissioner, must accompany the petition, and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to expect the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. "In other words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by the personal exertions, but any profits he may have made, from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10 As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value $500; five hundred dollars, also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process, by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to the amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864. A safe Counsellor suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $200, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11 It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides, that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13. Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

EDUCATIONAL.

Kittrell's Springs Female College,

GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.

The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past season, in a family of nearly two hundred, there was not even a case of sickness. The health of many afraid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here, and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano, Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the finest quality.

Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.

Terms moderate and accommodations.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the South. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

REGISTRATION.

The Reconstruction Acts require that fourteen days prior to any election held under those Acts, it shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration to revise their lists for three days, and receive the names of all those (not disfranchised,) who have not already registered. Consequently, the Registration lists will be re-opened on the 7th, of April, as the election commences on the 21st.

We call the especial attention of the County Committees to this very important matter. There are thousands of white men in North Carolina, who are privileged to do so, who have not registered. Let them be individually appealed to, and urged, by every consideration of sacred duty, to register at once. A full registration is CERTAIN VICTORY. The present white majority of 32,000 can easily be increased to upwards of FORTY THOUSAND, if all of those, who are entitled to register, will do so. DO NOT DELAY. Register as soon as the books are opened.

THE X P G AT HIGH POINT.—A correspondent informs us that Holden's meeting at High Point was a great failure. There were not a hundred persons, white and black, present. The same writer says: "It is rumored that Holden will, more than likely, withdraw." We hope not.

The X P G failed to meet his appointment, in Wilmington, on yesterday. He is hours with his vain efforts to call up followers.

THE VIRGINIA CONVENTION has been in actual session eighty-one days. Besides, there was a recess of about three weeks, for which the members drew pay! They have been in Richmond upwards of three months, have exhausted all the money appropriated for them by the Legislature, are scheming to borrow more, and yet their work is not done!

THOUGHTS FOR THE PEOPLE.

(No. 4.)

BASIS OF REPRESENTATION.

EXTRAVAGANCE—CORRUPTION—TAXATION.

LOSS OF POWER TO THE WHITE MAN!

To the People of North Carolina:

Under the new Constitution, the basis of representation in both Senate and House of Commons (Representatives) is population. The great conservative feature of having two branches of the Legislature, of different bases, so that one shall be a check on the other, is abolished. The Senate is to be merely a petty House, composed of 50, instead of 120, members—both exactly alike in every particular; except numbers. The trifling distinction as to the ages of delegates need not be mentioned.

Both Houses are founded on population. The framers of the Constitution of the United States, which we have been accustomed to regard as embodying thought, and wisdom, and political experience, deemed it best that the Senate should be composed in a different manner,—the House representing population, the Senate representing the States; the House elected by the people, the Senators by the Legislatures. Our North Carolina ancestors were of similar opinions, and, under our good old Constitution, the House of Commons represented population, counting five slaves equal to three whites, while the basis of the Senate is taxation.—Hence, property is protected in one branch of the Legislature, while the popular idea has full sway in the other.

Under the proposed Constitution, these conservative features are abolished.

Both Houses are founded on mere numbers—one third of the people being suddenly invested with polical power, but lately emerged from slavery. What is to prevent, hereafter, exorbitant taxation on property? With 70,000 new voters, without wealth or intelligence, it certainly seems a dangerous experiment to abolish all the old safeguards, which the wisdom of our ancestors provided.

A striking example is at hand. The late Convention, founded on population only, ordered the General Assembly to levy a tax of over $2,000,000, to be collected out of a people not yet recovered from the disasters of a terrible war and staggering under an unprecedented failure of crops and enormous Federal taxation. The tax on cotton growers only, was 2½ cents per pound on cotton, selling for 10 cents per pound, or one fourth of the farmer's produce. This amounted, for the whole State, to $1,900,000 (Federal tax for cotton alone. They created new offices, never heard of before by our people. They levied taxes nearly a million and a quarter of dollars to pay interest on the public debt, and a million more for other purposes. They imposed taxes which will be more than eight times higher than those which the people, impoverished and ruined, with difficulty paid in 1867. They wanted the public loads to a degree unexampled in the annals of legislative corruption. They actually gave one million two hundred thousand dollars to a Railroad, leading to Yankee property, in the Deep River valley,—$38,000 per mile,—more than other Railroads usually cost. And, besides, they made a present to the same Railroad of all that remains of the Cape Fear and Deep River Navigation Works—ten large dams and locks, making an immensely valuable water-power, costing the State over half a million of dollars.—Gen. Littlefield, a northern man, who lobbied the Convention the entire session, and sang "John Brown's body lies mouldering in the grave," over its labors, at its close, frequently spoke of having large possessions in the Deep River Valley.

Surely such gross extravagance and corruption were the result of putting Northern adventurers, carpet baggers, and impoverished natives, into power.

LOSS OF POWER TO THE WHITE MAN.

Heretofore, the House of Commons was founded on "Federal population," five black men estimated as three white men, the 331,059 slaves counting only as 198,633.—Under the new Constitution, a black is made equal in political power to a white man. The Counties where there are large numbers of negroes will gain power at the expense of those where the whites predominate.—Edgecombe, Halifax and Warren will gain at the expense of the midland and mountain Counties. Are the white men of the mountains willing to become INFERIORS TO THE LATE SLAVES of the East?—Are they willing to see their Railroads stop and go to ruin; their lands confiscated by taxation, to build Railroads in those portions of the State, where negroes and Northerners reign supreme?

These results, developed by the census of 1869, will be much more striking at the next census, because negroes are leaving the midland and Western counties and moving into the Eastern. They are coming, too, in large numbers from Virginia. It is said to be certain that Virginia will reject her Constitution, and, in that case, if North Carolina becomes a NEGRO STATE, by adopting the proposed Constitution, hordes of sable voters will swarm here like flocks of crows, to enjoy the franchises they cannot get in their native State. From the home of Thad. Stevens and of Ben Wade, from Maine to Kansas, dusky lines of immigrants will seek here that room for the development of their political ambition, which they cannot attain in the States which force the enormity on us. Then, too late, will our white citizens bewail the short sighted folly which has led to their ruin.—The negroes, and their pretended friends, who, for the sake of office, descend to depths of conscious degradation, will rule the State, and all respectable people who have the power will fly FROM THE POLLUTED PLACE.

Oh! North Carolinians! By all the sacred memories of our past history—by all the hopes and aspirations of the future—if you would make this State a fit place for your CHILDREN TO INHABIT, exert yourselves, in season, to avoid the impending calamities! VOTE DOWN THIS INFAMOUS CONSTITUTION! Do not voluntarily put a chain around your necks. Let not your children and children's children have reason to rise up and call you accursed!!

PUBLIC INSTRUCTION UNDER THE NEW CONSTITUTION.

Section 17, Article 9, of the proposed new Constitution, entitled "Education," is in these words:

"The General Assembly is hereby empowered to enact that every child of sufficient mental and physical ability SHALL attend the Public Schools during the period between the ages of six and eighteen years, for a term of not less than sixties months, unless educated by other means."

Under and by virtue of this Constitution, there is no distinction of right between white people and black people; what is right for one is right for the other, without distinction or limitation. This cannot be denied. Well, by virtue of this Constitution, Public Schools are to be established for the education of the children of the State, both white and black, and any child may go to the Public Schools, by virtue of Constitutional right. The Legislature will have no power to deprive him of such right by any act; the negro child has the same right to go that the white child has, or because of this common right, under the Constitution, the Public Schools must be common or open to whites and blacks alike. This may be said of the University, also.

What, then, is the inevitable result?—Why, it is this: If the children of the State go to the public Schools, or to the University, all, white and black, who choose to go, must go together. This conclusion is unavoidable under this Constitution. The Legislature cannot say a negro shall not go to the University, any more than it can say a white youth shall not; it cannot say a white child shall go up stairs to school, and a black one down stairs. Why? Because such act or declaration, on the part of the Legislature, would destroy this principle of common right, without distinction or limitation, which permeates and pervades the proposed Constitution.

But suppose the whites will not go to the public Schools, under such rules and regulations. Then, the Constitution provides, (read the quotation again, at the head of this article, and mark the emphasized words,) that the Legislature may compel the people to send their children to these common public Schools, where the whites and blacks must go together, unless a man is able to send his children to a private school.—In this contingency, the rich could help themselves,—the poor could not!

This could have been easily and properly avoided, by providing in the Constitution for white and black schools. Why was this not done? Simply for the reason, that those Radicals, from the North, intend to force upon us, in every possible way, NEGRO EQUALITY, social as well as political; and some of our native Radicals have not sense enough to see it, while others of them desire it.

Does anybody doubt that the Northern Radicals, the negroes and the native Radicals, that lately assembled here at the Capital, in Convention, would force whites and blacks to go to the same schools, if need be? Why they provided in this Constitution for it and refused to make any other proviso; they voted down, by solemn vote, propositions to make the schools for whites and blacks distinct, and this they did, in the face of the absolute necessity of providing for such distinction in the Constitution!

Let the people consider these truths. There is the Constitution; see the truth with your own eyes. Who can hesitate to VOTE AGAINST such an infamous provision?

THE LESSON FROM ALABAMA.

And Alabama is not to be admitted. Because, says the New York Times, it would be manifestly unjust that Congress should reverse the people's verdict rendered in strict compliance with the very letter of Radical law. Because, says the New York Herald, the Republicans fear that the power which rejected the Constitution may cast a Democratic vote in the Presidential election.

The motive of this change of tactics, says the Petersburg Index, can be of very little moment to us—the result is of great importance, for it determines for the rest of the excluded States the possibility of postponing negro rule. Virginia, North Carolina, Arkansas, and possibly other of the Southern States, can certainly vote down the Constitutions to be submitted, and the same fear of Northern reaction against arbitary measures, and the same fear of Southern ability to defeat the negro party at the polls, which impelled the continued exclusion of Alabama, will operate to prevent coercion in future cases.

THE IDIOTIC "CONVENTION."

WEBSTER defines an "Idiot" to be: "A natural fool, or fool from his birth; a human being in form, but destitute of reason, or the ordinary intellectual powers of man."

The proposed new Constitution provides (Art. XI, sec. 9:)

"It shall be the duty of the Legislature, as soon as practicable, to devise means for the education of IDIOTS and inebriates."

Educate a natural fool! Pass around the soubriquet, "THE IDIOTIC CONVENTION."

ARKANSAS, ALL HAIL!—The white men of Arkansas have defeated, by a clear majority, the infamous Constitution proposed for that State. Let the white men of North Carolina defeat, by an overwhelming majority, the still more infamous Constitution proposed for them!

OUR CORRESPONDENTS.—We are much obliged to our friends for their favors.—Three of our friends at Lexington favored us with notices of the visit of the X. P. G. at that place, for all of which we return our thanks. We have made use of the one which seemed to furnish more particulars than the rest.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

HOLDEN, SETTLE & CO., AT LEXINGTON.

Messrs. Editors:—On the morning of the 19th., Holden, Capt. Settle, Tourgee and a "brudder," whose name I did not learn, arrived at this place. Soon after breakfast they repaired to Windy Billy's quarters to "puff and bile." If you do not know who Windy Billy is, you can find out at the next term of our Superior Court.

At 12 o'clock, the speaking began. They had agreed to let the Conservatives have one hour to represent their cause. Holden opened for about one hour and a quarter.—The X. P. G. was much milder than was expected. In fact, he made a much more decent and respectable speech than any of the crowd, except W. M. Robbins, Esq., who followed the X. P. G. in an eloquent strain, perfectly demolishing him. Although he labored under great disadvantages, he made the hour allowed him tell to great advantage. Of course, they were afraid to divide the time equally with him. An hour is scarcely long enough for an introduction to the issues of the present campaign; and, besides, having such short time, they arranged it so that the settle and sugar coating Settle could follow, and so that whatever false statements he might make, he could not be replied to, as the hour allowed Robbins had been consumed. However Mac made it tell. In reply to the X. P. G's charge of the Conservatives being rebels, traitors, &c., he said that came with a poor grace from one who was acknowledged to be the father of Secession in North Carolina, and one who had "pledged the last man and the last dollar to whip the infernal Yankees," and one, too, who had advertised, through the columns of his newspaper, "who will plot for the heads of Abe Lincoln and Gen. Scott?" Each one of these charges brought deafening and prolonged applause and laughter. This was more than the X. P. G. could bear. He immediately sprang to his feet with his gold-headed cane in hand and demanded to be heard by the crowd, who were still applauding.—After the applauding ceased, he said that he was "sorry that such a fine and intelligent gentleman as Mr. Robbins would repeat this here—an infamous lie concocted by that man Pell, and republished by that infamous Helper." He said he had no hand in it. Mr. Robbins said he would drop it with this remark, "that it was strange that such a thing should be found ind the Standard and continue in the different editions without his approval." This brought the house down again. After skinning Holden, Mr. Robbins dissected the Radical party, and was showing its corruption and double dealing, when Capt. Settle reminded him that his hour was out. When Mr. Robbins quit, the house came down again.

After which the X. P. G. lit his cigar and the Rads seemed easier. Tourgee, from Ohio, (it is supposed) went down into the cess-pool and commenced throwing dirt into the eyes of the ignorant "brudders."—He told a few nasty stories and quit without touching any of the issues of the day.—He quit amidst the applause of the "brudders"—no whites joining in.

Next came Capt. Settle. I am sorry to tell you that the once high-toned Thomas Settle made the lowest, filthiest and most sycophantic harangue of them all. His speech consisted of an account of "cruelties of the war"—how women suffered, &c., &c. He tried to excite the ignorant into a fear of war, if this Constitution should be not adopted.

He charged that the present Conservative party was the same old secession party and wanted war. What do you reckon Nathaniel Boyden, Lewis Hanes, D. F. Caldwell and Dr. Leach will think of that? I will give you an example of how low-down his speech was. Speaking of social equality, he said: "Young white men seemed to be exercised by social equality. It is a plain fact that unmarried colored gentlemen are not in the habit of having sexual intercourse with white women. They don't desire it. Can as much be said of unmarried white gentlemen, in reference to colored ladies?" He said that or words to that effect, and he a candidate for the Supreme Court bench! Oh! shades of Gaston! He was applauded frequently by the negroes and a very few whites.

Notwithstanding the meeting was called a "Republican" mass meeting, and had been so proclaimed all over the country for a long time, five-sixths of the whites were Conservatives, who came through curiosity to see the "animal," Holden, of whom they have heard all their lives. The meeting was composed of about one hundred "brudders," about one hundred and fifty Conservatives and about thirty scallawags—many of whom, I think, from non-approval of the proceedings, will call off their dogs.

A. B. C.

ROWAN.—The Conservatives of this county have nominated the following admirable ticket:

For the Senate.—William Mc. Robbins, of Rowan; (subject to the action of Davie county.)

For the House.—Joseph A. Hawkins, Isaac M. Shaver.

GUS HOLMES was found guilty of the murder of Matt King, by the Circuit Court, at Tarboro', on Wednesday last, and was sentenced to be hanged on the 3d. of April, the time fixed for the execution of Jim Knight and John Taylor.

GALLOWAY, the clay-bank nigger, who figured in the late Mongrel Convention, has been nominated for the Senate, in New Hanover. Gen. Abbott, and two negroes, have been nominated for the House. The New Hampshire patriot is nicely sandwiched.

COL. L. W. HUMPHREY, of Wayne, has received the nomination for the Senate, for the District composed of the counties of Wayne and Greene.

SHALL WHITE CHILDREN BE COMPELLED to go to the same schools with NEGROES? That is one of the issues.

Shall MARRIAGE BETWEEN NEGROES and WHITES—amalgamation,—be allowed? That is one of the issues.

THE PRESIDENCY—A MOVE BY SOUTHERN RADICALS.—A few Radical Southerners now in Washington, who dislike Gen. Grant, held a meeting on Monday evening and after some talk decided in favor of Mr. Wade for the President and Senator Wilson for Vice President. Some of them subsequently called on Messrs. Wade and Wilson. They say that they received them very cordially, but gave them no encouragement, and that Mr. Wilson said that so far as he was concerned, he stood where the Republican party of his own State had placed him, on the platform with General Grant.—Tribune.

A negro Alderman in New Orleans has brought suit against an educational convent, for $100,000, for refusing a member of his family admission to it as a scholar.

THE GREAT MASS MEETING IN RUTHERFORD—GOV. VANCE IN CLEAVELAND.

SHELBY, Mar. 20, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—On Tuesday, the 17th., it being Court Week, Gov. Vance addressed the people of Rutherford upon the vital issues now before them for their decision. It had been generally understood throughout the County that Vance would be at Rutherfordton, on Monday, the 16th., and it was conceded by all parties that there had not been such a crowd gathered in the County in the last twenty five years. People from Polk, McDowell, Cleaveland, Buncombe and Henderson, the adjoining counties, were there. Even Spartansburg District, S. C., was largely represented, and old Rutherford en masse was gathered. But Gov. Vance not being able to get there on Monday, because of previous engagements, sent word that he would speak on the next day, (Tuesday,) and those from a distance remained over, and the citizens of the county returned the next day.

In the meantime, on Monday, Cols. B. S. Gaither and John F. Hoke addressed the people in their able and effective style, creating a great, and, it is believed, a lasting impression.

I never have seen a people so attentive and so anxious to hear. It had been said by sneaking scalawags that Vance should not speak in Rutherfordton. Some of them had heard him speak in Shelby, during Court week, and they trembled for their party in Rutherford, if Vance should get a chance at them, and, therefore, they attempted to get out word that he would not be there and that they would not allow him to speak. But they would hear him, and all the scalawags in the State could not have prevented the people of all parties in Rutherford from listening to him, and woe be to the man who had tried that day to interrupt him! That heaving, surging crowd would soon have placed him beyond the reach of mortal hands.

I have never heard Gov. Vance deliver a more powerful appeal to put down that iniquitous Constitution. For three and a half hours he chained the crowd, and when he was done they still insisted on his continuing. That spotted crew, nominated by the Radicals, from Holden down to Jaybird Jones and Riley Cannon, were handled as such dirty subjects deserved to be handled, and as Vance only can do. Tod. R. Caldwell, C. L. Harris and George Logan, all nominees of the Radicals, were present, and I only wish that the people of the State could have heard old Zeb when he was personating a negro Captain drilling George Logan and Harris in a Militia Company. Had Holden seen that crowd, and how completely Gov. Vance had them chained to him, he would have seen that George Logan, who he says has so much strength in the blue Mountains of the West, was but small potatoes and very few in the hill. The common school system, compelling whites and blacks to attend together, the mixture of the races in the militia, the unjust basis of representation and taxation, those odious provisions in the Constitution, together with the ruinous doctrines of social equality and negro supremacy, were brought home to the people and fixed in their hearts with powerful effect. No people could withstand such appeals. The fruits were seen then and there. Many who had been prominent and active Leaguers and Red Strings denounced the party, cursed the men who had led them into it and declared their determination to do their might and main against the Constitution.

Old Rutherford is aroused and moving and will show her fruits at the election.

The day after Vance spoke, George Logan, Coburn Harris and Tod Caldwell held their pow wow of negroes, dogs, old women and children. All could see the effect of Vance's speech. They were cowed, crest fallen and evinced unmistakable signs that their power was broken and the scales were falling from the people's eyes. Those who are thoroughly acquainted with the people in the County say that such a revolution in political sentiment never has been known, and the County Canvassers are rolling on the ball. They will make an effort to get Gov. Graham to come up and address them before the election. If he does, the finishing stroke will be given to the negro Constitution in Rutherford County.

But while I am writing of Gov. Vance in Rutherford, I must not omit Cleaveland.—In Shelby, both Tuesday and Wednesday of Court week, the citizens of Cleaveland were stirred up and aroused by Judge Osborne, Col. John F. Hoke and Gov. Vance. The crowds were full of enthusiasm, and the heaving and surging of the living masses told of that powerful ground-swell of the people which will sweep from the State that swindle of a Constitution, and proclaim to the world that the day of such men as George Logan, C. L. Harris, Ned Elliott, Riley Cannon, Jake Bowman and Jaybird Jones, is soon drawing to a close. Cleaveland is moving and will make herself be heard the day of the election. One thing we need, Messrs. Editors, is a large number of copies of the Constitution for circulation.—Cannot the Executive Committee furnish them to our County Canvassers? Please say to them, that we are needing them very much. We are determined on making a strong fight, and God grant that the white men of North Carolina may scatter this dark cloud of negro ignorance and white rascality, which threatens to envelope ourselves and our children!

CLEAVELAND.

MISCHIEVOUS, VERY.—For several days past a commonly executed drawing, representing the head and bust of a thick-lipped African, has greeted the eyes of the observer from a position on the wall of a building in one of our public quarters. Who this represented few cared to inqure, though 'twas said by some one, doubtless interested, that it was but the sign of Rumley's Minstrels. Yesterday morning, however, beneath this beautiful drawing appeared the name of W. W. Holden, in large letters, which fact caused some amusement for the time being. But on serious reflection, we were pleased that the great X P G should be represented in the popular color at last. If not his face, certainly his principles, have been thus dyed for many years past.—Wil. Journal.

CONTINUED BIVOUAC IN THE WAR OFFICE.—Mr. Stanton still sleeps and eats in his office at the War Department.—About two weeks ago he ventured out of his cell for an hour or two, and walked the pavement in front of the building, and occasionally paid a short visit to a friend who resided in the vicinity; but since the beginning of the excitement about the Virginia raiders he has been closely immured, and does not risk himself outside of picket guard.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Herald, 21st.

THE CONNECTICUT ELECTION—ENCOURAGING NEWS.—Several Democratic members here have received letters of the most encouraging report, from Connecticut. Instead of the comparatively small majority of about 900 realized in the election of last year, it is confidently asserted that a majority of at least 2,000 will be recorded for the Democratic candidates.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Herald.

Mass Meetings.

The State Executive Committee recommend the holding of Conservative Mass Meetings at the following times and places:

Raleigh,	Tuesday,	April	7
Statesville,	"	"	7
Greensboro',	Friday,	"	10
Wilmington,	"	"	10
Goldsboro',	Wednesday,	"	8
Salisbury,	"	"	8

Messrs. DOOLITTLE, HENDRICKS and others of U. S. Senate, and Messrs. BROOKS, ELDRIDGE and others of the House, have been invited to attend these meetings, and they are expected to come. It will be seen that the meetings are crowded, for the reason that these gentlemen can remain in the State but a few days.

Our friends in those places are requested to make the necessary arrangements for holding these meetings and further publication, &c. Popular speakers in this State are also expected to be present. Rally Conservatives!

Rally, Conservatives!

The White Men's Club will hold a meeting at the Court House, this (Tuesday) evening, at 8 o'clock. Speeches are expected. Let all come out, and hear the truth.

By order of the PRESIDENT.

WAKE COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The Wake County Conservative Executive Committee are requested to meet in this city, on Monday next, (30th inst.,) being the Monday of Wake Superior Court, for the transaction of highly important business.

The following gentlemen compose the Committee, viz: H O Parker, Chairman; Jeptha Horton, J L Separks, Peter Fleming, Alvis Sorrell, J P H Russ, R C Badger, M A Bledsoe, G H Alford, Berry Bagwell, Ruffin Holder, Reuben Fleming, J B Neathery, G H Fairbault, N J Whitaker, Wm Laws and J J L McCullers.

THE MASS MEETING.

Our friends in Guilford having arranged for a Mass Meeting in Greensboro', on the 10th of April, and made general announcement of the fact, it has become necessary to make some changes in the programme suggested by the State Executive Committee, so as not to conflict with the arrangements already made.

These changes are noted in another column, under the local head. Our brethren of the Press will please notice and correct accordingly. Let us have a series of rousers. We have every reason to hope for the presence of distinguished Northern speakers.

SPEAKING AT HOOD'S STORE.—One or more of the County Canvassers for the White Man's Party will address the people, next Saturday, the 28th, at Hood's Store.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Large and elegant Importation of British, French and American Dry Goods for the Spring of 1868: Hull, Atkinson & Co., 258 Baltimore St., Baltimore. This is one of the first Firms in the Union, and it needs no endorsement at our hands.

W. H. Crow, General Agent of the Ætna Life Insurance Company, presents a splendid exhibit of the operations and benefits of that great company.

Smiths' Bellows,—32 inches: J. Brown (with Hart & Lewis.)

MAYOR'S COURT.—Marcellus Sauls, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

Wm. Champion, charged with assaulting Ginny Stevens, was returned to Superior Court.

H. Bragg, C. McKimmon, J. Q. DeCarteret, E. E. Harris, Henry Hardie, John Thompson, E. S. Badger, were charged with being engaged in a riot and affray, and in publishing a libel against the public peace; after a full investigation of the charge, there was no evidence produced to sustain the charge and the parties were all discharged.

Joseph W. Holden, W. A. Hearne and Wm. Biggs, charged with being engaged in an affray, were returned to the Superior Court.

John Ashe, colored, charged with discharging fire-arms in the city, was fined $10.

A large number of U. S. soldiers, arrested by the Police and lodged in the Guard House for being in the city without permission, were turned over to the military authorities.

MORE EXCITEMENT.—The streets were again the scene of considerable excitement, yesterday afternoon. Some drunken soldiers were kicking up a row, and resisted arrest at the hands of Officer Bryant,—using him severely. Other policemen came to his assistance, when the riotous offenders were conquered and caged.

THE NEWS from every quarter is inspiring. The defeat of the Mongrels is CERTAIN, if every Conservative VOTES. We believe that they will, and that the old North State will be saved from the clutches of the negro-Radical demon!

MR. CONNOR'S Panorama of Paintings, beautifully colored and illuminated by the Drummond light, will be exhibited again, to-night, at Tucker Hall. His exhibition, last evening, was very largely attended and afforded equal instruction and pleasure.—The artistic merits of these entertainments, as well as the philanthropic and noble objects for which Mr. Connor so generously gives them, are worthy of all commendation and general patronage.

FOR INTERESTING matter see first page.

SABBATH AFFRAYS.—The proceedings of the Mayor's Court show that our usually quiet city was disturbed on Sunday last by several occurrences, neither creditable to the city nor pleasant to record.

As the difficulty between Jos. W. Holden, junior editor of the Standard, and Maj. Hearne, of the Cardinian, and Capt. Biggs, of the Tarboro Southerner, growing out of a newspaper article, will be the subject of judicial investigation next week before the Superior Court, we cannot, with propriety, perhaps, give a detail of the particulars.—None of the parties were much hurt,—Mr. J. W. Holden being the aggressor and principal sufferer. Whatever may have been the alleged offence of Maj. Hearne, nothing could justify the attack upon him, on the Sabbath, in one of the most public streets of the city, when he and Capt. Biggs were quietly walking the street, both of them without even a cane, anticipating no disturbance and most unwilling to participate in one, under such circumstances.

Under ordinary circumstances, such an occurrence would meet with merited condemnation, but, at a time like this, when the large masses of ignorant negroes are sought to be drawn into the personal quarrels or disputes of white persons, or are known to stand ready to take part with those who claim to be their special friends, it is so gross a breach of the public peace and quiet, that no reasonable man can do otherwise than condemn it severely.

We are told that although the affray was soon suppressed, large crowds of excited negroes gathered at the Mayor's office, whose menacing speeches and conduct, in favor of the aggressor on this occasion, might have ended in a serious riot, if the white people had not exercised unusual forbearance.

Indeed, the occurrences of the last four weeks indicate most plainly, that it is the purpose of the Radicals, if possible, to involve the community in embroilment and riot. The party, North and South, feel the need of something of this kind, to afford the shadow of justification for its course. So far, our people have exercised great judgment and prudence. The white people, and the real friends of the white men and negro, desire and will give no occasion for riot, but their forbearance must not be construed into a willingness to submit with impunity to insult and abuse. They will exercise forbearance when it can be done properly, but we warn those, who are ready to excite disturbance, to beware, lest a just and merited retribution overtake them.

If any class of citizens are treated improperly, there are times and places for defence or revenge, if men desire it, without trenching upon the sanctities of the Holy Sabbath or the decencies and proprieties of time and place, when the whole community may be excited and public order disturbed.

HANGING IN EFFIGY.—On Sunday morning, an effigy was found, by early risers, we learn, hanging from one of the trees in Capitol Square, which, judging from a placard posted on the figure, was designed to represent Mr. W. W. Holden. The silly thing was soon cut down, and need have aroused none of the excitement which, it seems, it subsequently gave rise to.

During the day, Mr. J. W. Holden made complaint to the Mayor against a number of worthy young gentlemen, in this city, of only suspected complicity in the affair, and thereby "publishing a libel against the public peace," and a warrant was accordingly issued for their appearance before that officer, on yesterday.

At 10 o'clock, the case was called,—Mr. Would-be Attorney General Coleman appearing for the Prosecution and Messrs. R. C. Badger and Ed. Graham Haywood for the Defence. The latter at once, and very properly, moved to quash the whole proceeding, on the ground that there was no positive or certain information against the parties in the affidavit of J. W. Holden, (an affidavit filed subsequent to the issuing the warrant,) and that it was one of the first maxims of common law that no man should be restrained of his liberty, until some shadow of proof was shown of his guilt. Simple hear say was not admissible, and there was not one scintilla of evidence against the present parties. They did not shirk investigation, but there should be evidence of the fact. The simple allegation, on the part of the prosecutor, that he was informed, &c., was no evidence, and the writ was improperly issued.

The Mayor over-ruled the point, and the trial was proceeded with. The witnesses summoned by the Prosecution were all examined—not one of whom knew anything about the matter, except that Mr. C. H. Drum, and Mr. L. N. Keith, the former a clerk to Col. Deweese and the latter an employee in the Standard office, had been informed, by a negro, on Sunday morning, that the effigy was hanging in Capitol Square!

The Mayor, of course, discharged the parties, who had thus been wantonly restrained of their liberties, at once. These gentlemen have every reason to be justly indignant at this whole procedure. The Conservatives of this City are a forbearing, law-abiding people, and there is as much evidence that this effigy was hung up by Radicals, in order to raise a clamor of persecution and to subserve party ends, as that any Conservative in Raleigh had aught to do with it.

The report that the trial of the parties was pending caused quite a crowd to assemble at the Mayor's Office,—among them a large number of negroes. A squad of the military was on hand to prevent a disturbance of the peace, and their presence had quite a moral and calming effect on the painfully-evident purpose of the blacks to make a demonstration, as they had been so much disposed to do on the preceding evening.

We learn that, some of the gentlemen, who were arrested, have brought suit against the prosecution, including the Mayor, for false arrest, in the sum of $5,000.

CONGRESS—IMPEACHMENT.

WASHINGTON, March 23, P. M.

SENATE.—On motion, it was ordered that 350 copies of the daily, and finally 5,000 copies of the impeachment, proceedings be printed.

A bill reorganizing the Circuit Courts in the United States was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

At 12.30, Wade announced suspension of business for impeachment.

The order was argued until one o'clock, when Chase proclaimed the Court open.

The President's Counsel appeared.

Davis submitted a motion, that the Senate, as constituted, did not constitute the Impeachment Court contemplated by the Constitution—ten States without their consent being ignored.—Only Davis and McCrery, both of Kentucky, voted aye.

Chase intimated that the Court was ready for the President's answer.

Stanbery said it was ready, but the Counsel had devoted every hour allowed, ignoring private business and encroaching on habitual refreshment and recreation, to its preparation.

Curtis, Stanbery and Evarts each read in turn the answer to the first article.

The President argues all the questions involved and his duty under the circumstances, claiming his constitutional power of removal.

He considers the organization of the War Department, and the relations of the Secretary of War to his administration, claiming him as his constitutional advisor and showing the President's responsibility for the Secretary's actions.

He proceeds to show that Stanton had become hostile to the administration, and could no longer occupy the position toward the administration contemplated by the fathers, and that the President could no longer assume the responsibility for his actions.

He further claims that the action of the Senate did not restore Stanton to the War office, but that the War office, was technically vacant, when he appointed Thomas.

Familiar laws and precedents were quoted at length to sustain this position. He denies having or intended violating the Constitution or laws.

Answering the 2nd. Article the President asserts, at length, that the War office was vacant and quotes laws to sustain Thomas' appointment.

The answer to the 3rd. is a general denial.

In answer to the 4th. he denies any conspiracy whatever.

His action was confined to the notes to Thomas and Stanton, appointing one and removing the other.

In answer to the 5th, 6th and 7th, the same allegations occur—all backed by the assertion that he had no object, whatever, but to maintain the prerogatives of his office by legal means.

Answering the 8th, he disavows any intention of taking possession of the money or property of the War office, and again insists, by argument, illustrations and precedent, that he acted in a constitutional manner.

Answering the 9th article, he quotes the interview at length and his protest against the rider to the army appropriation bill, in which he claims, that it deprived him of his constitutional duty of commanding the army.

In answering the 10th article, the President denies that the specification give the truth in verbiage, statement or argument, in quoting from his speeches, and, in case the Senators entertained the charges, he demands a full investigation of what he said and meant. In this answer, the President claims, in a spirit somewhat defiant, his freedom of speech. He claims that though President, he is an American citizen.

Answering the 11th. Article, he claims that he cannot answer it, because it designates no design, device or attempt, involving action, which could be constrained a high misdemeanor.

The President retains the right to add to this answer.

The Managers announced their replication would be ready to-morrow, at 10 o'clock.

The President's counsel asked thirty days, which was refused, 41 to 12, a strict party vote.

A motion to postpone, fixing the time until after replication by the House, failed.

Johnson moved to allow ten days, amendatory to the motion from the President's counsel for a reasonable time; but the Court and Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—Proceedings unimportant.

The House proceeded in Committee of the Whole to the Senate.

On their return, Bingham, informed the House, that the President's answer had been anticipated, and that the management were ready.

On motion, the House meets at 11 o'clock, to-morrow, to consider the replication.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 23, P. M.

No official announcement regarding the intentions of the Court in the McCardle case.

More fashion in the Galleries to-day.

The confusion regarding procedure was most painfully evident.

Chase had his hands full in restraining Howard, Drake and others.

The effect of the President's answer is somewhat overwhelming.

Stanton's parroting the President, in saying, "considerations of high character induced him to retain the office," excited a grin between Washburn, of Illinois, and Schenck, of Ohio; beyond which, the utmost gravity prevailed.

The countenances of the impeachers evidently lengthened, as the answer proceeded to its close.

The votes to-day indicated nothing but a desire, on the part of Republicans, to hurry the matter through.

Republicans, who are regarded certain to vote finally from evidence and law, voted against 30 days after replication.

The Managers insist—mainly on the ground of public interest—that the unfortunate disagreement between the two branches may be removed, that the trial be pushed so that peace may be restored to the country.

The President's answer covers seven columns.

A PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a Chairman and thirty members,—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh, and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The Committee shall have power to maintain its organization, by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registration, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organizations, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and, when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

Resolved, That the President of the Convention appoint five or more persons, in each County, to make a thorough canvass of the same, and disseminate proper political information.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

The Conservative people of North Carolina having, by their delegates, assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th. of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments are equal and co-ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people of the Reconstruction Acts and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal affairs.

3. Resolved That it is the opinion of this Convention, that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically, and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper means within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudicies against that race; that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder, in the last resort, of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact, as established by law in the earlier and better days of the Republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats and Conservatives of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates, for the State at large, to represent the Conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the Conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, which has been appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient, to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered; and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said offices.

Canvassers for the State at Large.

The following gentlemen have been appointed, by the State Conservative Executive Committee, Canvassers for the State at large. NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any. The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year		$8 00
" "	six months,	4 00
" "	three months	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year,		4 00
" "	six months,	2 00
" "	three months,	1 00
Weekly "	for one year,	2 00
" "	six months,	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

W. E. PELL,
Proprietor
